CAREER SUMMARY

I am currently in the field of Oil and Gas working in African Gas and Oil Company (AGOL) as an HSE officer. AGOL currently is in construction of the mounded LPG bullets which will be the first in East and Central Africa and the biggest in Africa, am the HSE Officer in charge. Initially I was working as an LPG compliance Inspector/Environment Health and safety officer in SGS Kenya ltd, my job description mainly included carrying out EHS and technical audits for LPG refilling plants and branded service stations on behalf of ERC thus ensuring they maintain environment, health and safety and compliance to KS 1938 part 3:2012, OSHA 2007, Energy Act 2006, Legal Notice 121 of 2009 and EMCA 1999 (Amendment 2015). Ensuring consumers source genuine gas through various inspections of all LPG (liquefied petroleum gas) retail outlets in Kenya and identifying counterfeit filled LPG cylinders and sending monthly reports to Energy Regulatory Commission (ERC) and OMC (oil marketing companies). I have also practiced EIA (environment impact assessment) when working at Energy Regulatory Commission (ERC), which included reviewing of all petroleum EIA reports in Kenya and LPG projects and sending satisfactory comments to NEMA (National Environment Management Authority) before given EIA license. EIA reports reviewing basically included for all petroleum based projects such as proposals for constructing service stations, LPG refilling plants, electricity and renewable energy. During my term working for ERC I ensured successful auditing of Kenya Electricity Transmission Company (KETRACO) Rabai-Malindi Transmission line as one of my key achievements. Am also a practicing registered NEMA EIA/EA Associate Expert.
