WORK EXPERIENCE

I have worked in the private sector, particularly in the construction industry where I have gained valuable experience in structural engineering design, construction and project management. I have also served as the Technical Director with the largest contractor association in the country, the Kenya Federation of Master Builders (KFMB).

I'm also a training expert with the National Construction Authority (NCA) in their CPD program for contractors and I have served in different capacities both in the public and private sector as follows:

January 2007 to date	Director of Neobuild Ltd (construction company)
July 2013 to date	Lead trainer in the National Construction Authority (NCA) accredited, capacity building program for training contractors in Kenya.

April 2012 to April 2018

Technical Director of Kenya Federation of Master Builders

- Responsible for training and capacity buildings of members where I initiated the 1st nationwide training program for the members.
- Other highlights of my tenure include the signing of M.O.U between KFMB, NCA & JKUAT to create linkages between industry, regulatory bodies and academia in order to build the human resource capacity for the construction industry.
- Another achievement during my term was the international collaborations which we facilitated including the M.O.U between KFMB and the German chamber of skill crafts in Frankfurt and between KFMB, GIZ, Tullow Oil and Shell BP for training of local contractors.

January 2013 to
April 2018

The KFMB Team Leader in charge of organizing CIBEX, an International exhibition which takes place in Nairobi on February 2014 with a focus on Construction, Infrastructure, Building and Energy.
