Ref:

Date: 18th August, 2016

Dear Sir/Madam,

RE: RECOMMENDATION LETTER FOR KENNEDY CHOMBA MAINA

The above named was pursuing a Bachelor of Technology in Industrial and applied Chemistry at The Technical University of Kenya. He was on attachment at Kenya Industrial Research and Development Institute (KIRDI), Chemical Engineering Division, for three months (4th January, 2016 to 31st March, 2016).

During his attachment he was exposed to operations in the Chemical Engineering Laboratory and Pilot Plant, Ceramics and Building Materials and Laboratory Service Centre (Water & Wastewater, Food and Feeds laboratories) where he acquired skills in:-

1. Technology for production of household and personal care detergents and soaps, body and hair care products.
2. Quality assurance tests on soaps, detergents, lotions and creams.
3. Extraction of essential oils.
4. Water and wastewater effluent analysis (chemical oxygen demand, biological oxygen demand, pH, colour, conductivity, suspended and dissolved solids, sulphides and nitrates and water hardness).
5. Determination of protein content, fibre content, peroxide value, iodine value & saponification value in samples.

He also successfully undertook short research projects as assigned in:

1. Production of biodiesel from coconut oil.
2. Production of fat liquor from vegetable oils.
3. Production of essential oil from mexican marigold
4. Production of paints from locally available materials.

He was also exposed to:-

1. Operation and handling of laboratory and pilot equipment and apparatus (HPLC, rotary evaporator and reaction vessel).
2. Elements of health and safety, good laboratory control practices , handling and appropriate disposal of laboratory wastes.
3. The various Quality Assurance Control documentation and in-process data recording and report preparation.

He was found to be hardworking, responsible, organized and a good technological planner. His performance, attendance and general attitude towards work and team building were excellent.

It is without hesitation that I recommend Mr. Chomba, confident that he will perform well beyond your expectations.

Yours Faithfully,
