RE: RECOMMENDATION LETTER: MR. DANCUN LUGALIA IHULULE; ID No.32014671

I write in favor of Mr. Dancun Lugalia Ihulule who is currently applying for research and or technical position with your esteemed institution. I have known Mr. Lugalia for more than 4 years since he was a student in the Department of Biological Sciences, pursuing a Diploma Course in Applied Biology. Later in 2018-19 he joined the Departmental Laboratory as an intern. I had the pleasure of supervising his training and internship program and can attest to his abilities.

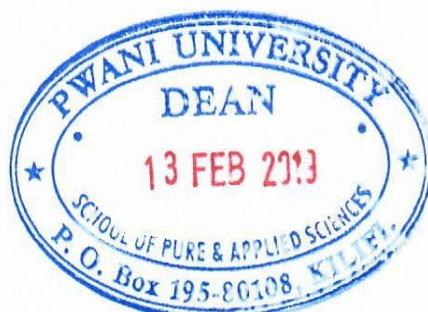

Mr. Lugalia has the passion for laboratory work. He is easy to work with, focused and requires minimum supervision to accomplish any given task. He has skills in field surveys, media preparation, microbial isolation and cultures, equipment calibration, operation, maintenance and repairs besides handling practical lessons. He also possesses ICT skills ideal for laboratory management. Dancun is amiable, friendly and hardworking. I am sure he shall contribute positively as a technician or research assistant in any institution.

I therefore strongly recommend him for consideration for engagement in the aforementioned technical areas in the field or laboratory. Feel free to contact me the undersigned for any further clarification on this candidate.

Yours sincerely,
